Lenten Bible Study*February 17 – March 317:00 p.m. via ZoomSeven Marks for Church VitalityPCUSA Missions Board - Matthew 25 Program*

Lent is the period in the church year between Ash Wednesday and Easter, and most of us think of it as a time of personal introspection, spiritual reflection, and scriptural meditation centering on Jesus' life, death, and his ultimate resurrection. Our study this year will call us to prayerfully study scripture and examine what it means to be called to be Christ's Church. Just as God calls each of us to live an abundant life as a child of God, Jesus calls his church to live a vital life of service and discipleship. What does it mean to be a vital congregation? What would that look like? How would we go about increasing our vitality and discipleship? These are exactly the questions that will drive our study and form the background for exploring our mission as Christ's Body in this place and time.

God calls us together as a congregation, binds us together through the Holy Spirit, and sends us out into the world bearing the love and grace of Jesus Christ. You are a vital part of our church family and we need your presence with us as we join in study to discern God's call to FPCM today.

The study will start Ash Wednesday, February 17, at 7:00 p.m. on Zoom, and will be held every Wednesday evening at 7 through March 31. Look for your Zoom invite in your email in the coming week. May God bless us in this work.

Contact Monica Stevens at mlkstev@hotmail.com if you have further questions.

Sunday School - Lenten Study

Begins: February 21

Meets at 9 am on Zoom (runs for seven Sundays).

From the publisher:

"In this imaginative retelling, John Pritchard explores the Gospel of Luke by looking through the eyes of the disciple John. The Journey to Jerusalem follows Luke's account from Luke 9:51, as Jesus "set his face to go to Jerusalem." Perfect for individual or group study, The Journey to Jerusalem provides weekday readings for Lent, from Ash Wednesday to Good Friday, along with a poem for each Saturday. Questions for reflection and discussion are also included."

The study will begin this Sunday (Feb 21) at 9 AM by Zoom and run for seven Sundays.

For more information, contact Denny Casey, d.a.casey@comcast.net.

Youth Ministry

The youth will be doing a Lenten study beginning Sunday, Feb. 21 that will mirror the Wednesday evening adult study on the Seven Marks for Congregational Vitality. We'll think about what it means to be a vital congregation and ways to increase our vitality by exploring scripture & questions to reflect on what it means to be The Church.

We will continue meeting

Sunday afternoons at 12 pm, still on Zoom.

If your middle or high school child would like to join us, please contact Sam at sam@peakspresbytery.org for an invite link to the Zoom meeting.

Margaret Mead famously said, "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world."

The Earth Care group reminds you that we will be recycling clean cans/metals on Saturday, Feb. 20. Let Victoria Esarey (276-732-9110) know if you have an old appliance or other heavy items for recycling.

Save the date if you would like to help with property clean-up in the areas behind the church on March 20.

Finally, does anyone have a useful hack for avoiding the use of common plastics? For example, has anyone tried the new bar shampoos that come in a paper wrapper, making one less bottle for the landfill?

The PCUSA website for Earth Care Congregations is:

<https://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/environment/earth-care-congregations/>

Denny Casey has remarked that the website is "like peeling an onion." But be not overwhelmed, just go poke around a bit to see how seriously Presbyterians are taking this idea of caring for our Earthly home.

Technology Corner

There have been some reports of emails from "RITA BATEMAN" going to junk mail folder.
