Pastor's Corner

Pastor's Corner

Rev. Mark Hinchcliff

June 11, 2020

Dear Friends,

I wanted to reach out to you to warn you about something that has occurred with my email account. It appears that I have been hacked on several levels. Last week, my Facebook account was hacked and after changing all passwords and safeguarding that, several church elders received a fraudulent email from what appears to be me, but is not. Someone has opened a Gmail account and is soliciting gift cards and funds for a cause. I have reported this to the Virginia State Police and will be working with them to resolve the issue. But in the meantime, it's very important that if you receive an email from pastor.fpcmartinsvilleva@gmail.com to immediately delete it and do not open. The police thinks it is primarily to solicit funds, however there could be a virus that can infect your email if opened. If you have received this email, my suggestion to you would be to change your password immediately for your own protection.

I am sorry for the inconvenience of this but unfortunately in today's world, things like this are happening all too often and I am the latest victim.

Please let this be a reminder that anything that you do online should be held in protective regard as we all can fall victim to fraudulent activities. May peace be with you and please join me in praying for our church, our community and our world.

Blessings,

Pastor Mark

"An Affront From All Sides"

Based upon 2 Corinthians 13:11–13

Be sure to join the Facebook live worship service every Sunday at 11 AM. The info is sent via text message and includes the link to the service. You may also join by navigating to our Facebook page, scrolling down to the "videos" section of the page and simply clicking on the video at 11 AM.

All members of the congregation are invited to submit suggestions to the Nomination Committee for the slate of ruling elders and trustees. All active members of First Presbyterian Church are eligible to hold office.

Suggestions for nominations for Elder and Trustees are being accepted now through June 29th. If you know of a man or woman of our congregation, whom you feel meets the outlined qualifications listed below; we encourage you to submit their name(s) to the church office at office@fpcmartinsvilleVA.org or to one of the Nominating Committee members:

Ex-officio, Mark Hinchcliff

Election of Church Officers

"Christ's ministry is the foundation and standard for all ministry, the pattern of the one who came, "not to be served but to serve" (Matt. 20:28)...Those who undertake particular ministries should be persons of strong faith, dedicated discipleship, and love of Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Their manner of life should be a demonstration of the Christian gospel in the church and in the world" (PCUSA Book of Order G-2.0101, 2.0104)

Discerning God's Call

As we seek to identify those who are called serve, consider the following characteristics, skills and commitments to the life of faith and the ministry of the church:

- Regular attendance in worship
- Participation in church activities
- Cooperative, with ability to work with others
- Willingness to learn and be open to new ideas
- Conscientious, with ability to follow through on tasks
- Demonstrates a Christian spirit in dealing with others
- Commitment to the government and discipline of the PC(USA)

Ruling Elders: Elders should be "persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership and being compassionate in spirit." (Book of Order G-2.0301) We are seeking 3 persons to serve a full 3 year term, class of 2023.

Trustees: Trustees exercise responsibility "to receive, hold, encumber, manage, and transfer property, real or personal, for the congregation." (Book of Order G-4.0101) We are seeking 2 persons to serve a full 3 year term, class of 2023.

Each term runs from January through December.

The church office and facility remain CLOSED. For the safety and health of our staff, please stay home. Even though we are in Phase 2, folks aren't supposed to be in the building until things are officially opened. Even then guidelines will have to be followed. You will be given notice when you can return. Thanks for your adherence and understanding.

The code to enter FPC has been changed. If you have need to enter the building and do not have a fob you will need to call the office and set an appointment time with a staff member. If you wish to have a key fob please call the office and leave a message. By having a key fob it will allow us to know when someone enters the facilities. We are trying to be proactive about disinfecting areas if we know someone has been there.

Anyone entering FPC must use the back door at the portico. All other doors are to remain closed with no entry. You are required to wear a mask to enter. Please help us to maintain a COVID-19 free facility by staying home if you are sick or have been in contact with the virus in the past 14 days.

We are called to make a difference, and one good place to start is by taking the 21-Day Racial Justice Challenge, which is well suited to individuals, churches and mid councils. The challenge invites us to do something every day to raise awareness about the perniciousness of racism and encourage action in response to that awareness. The PC (USA) has joined several nonprofits, organizations and school systems in adapting the challenge for our use.

Presbytery of the Peaks has decided to publish a cookbook!! They are continuing to collect recipes from all over the Presbytery. Please email your recipes to Theresa Underwood, Peaks PW Treasurer. Her email address is: tundwood@aol.com.

We have so many good cooks in our congregation. It would be lovely to have our church participate!!

Adult Sunday School

This is the book we will be using for the next Sunday school class beginning on June 14 and will run for about 10 weeks. We will be offering the class by Zoom. Books are being ordered. Anyone interested in joining the class contact Denny Casey d.a.casey@comcast.net or (276) 224-3906. Denny will be creating a schedule and would like to encourage leaders or co-leaders to sign up to lead one (or more) classes.

Here's a blurb from the PCUSA bookstore:

"Examining other religions provides Christians the opportunity to more deeply understand their own beliefs. Learning about other religions is not the same as learning from other religions, which can have great value to Christians who wish to strengthen their faith.

In this book's ten easy-to-read chapters, Wogaman shows readers what Christians can learn from different religions, such as Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and even from atheism. From these religions, Christians can achieve insight into love, sin, ritual, the importance of myth to convey truth, the foundational roots of Christianity, the dark side of Christian history, and many other important ways to see and interpret the world and to understand God. The book concludes with a chapter on what other religions can learn from Christianity.

Perfect for church study groups, each chapter ends with questions for discussion."

Youth Sunday School

Our Youth Sunday School class will continue to meet via Zoom on Sunday afternoons from 3 - 4:00pm. Starting this week we will be taking a deeper look at our faith, how we worship, practice Sabbath, & what it means to be a Presbyterian. We'll also take time to check in, hang out, and maybe even play some games! If your middle or high school child would like to join us, now would be a great time to, please contact Sam (sfsmith@mail.roanoke.edu) for an invite link to the Zoom meeting.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Even though the doors to the church building are closed and our congregation is dispersed into our individual homes for the foreseeable future, we are still bound to each other through the love of Christ and the presence of the Holy Spirit. Your Agape Team has been working to contact all of the members of our congregation to touch base with you, visit with you, and check on your needs. The Agape Team will contact you periodically, but if you want to talk or if you need help with getting groceries or supplies before they contact you, please feel free to contact any of our Agape Team. We are here for you. Also, each of us is charged to care for one another, so if you feel God calling you to reach out to others please do so. We are all Christ's church together.

"Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God...There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear." 1 John 4:7; 18

Grace and Peace to all of you from the Agape Team

Please remember Canned Tuna or Canned Meat for Grace Network

Dear Friends,

Grace Network is continuing to help those in our community during the Covid-19 situation in partnership with the Harvest Foundation, the United Way, Salvation Army, Community Fellowship and the Henry County Food Pantry in Bassett. We have all come together to provide food boxes for those in need and will provide 5 locations to pick up these boxes each Monday from 9-2.

Grace is blessed to be part of this effort and when this is all over, we will go back to our regular services in providing financial services and food through our regular processes. The assigned food items from our church partners will become even more important on the other side of this quarantine with so many needing extra help to get back on their feet.

The new food item for First Presbyterian Church for the 2nd quarter is canned tuna or other canned meats like chicken or ham. Please consider donating extra when you are able to get out and about as your donations will become more important than ever. Please stay safe, stay healthy and please keep us in your prayers as we navigate these uncharted waters.

Blessings, Tracy

A Note from the the Editor

Although regular church services have been cancelled and we are no longer meeting in person, I hope we all try to stay in touch with one another using any possible medium. Phone calls, face time, emails, etc. It is important that we look after one another during these difficult times and it's good to know we are not alone. While there are no regular happenings to report on, I would like to send out Steeple Views on a weekly basis so please feel free to share any news or updates with me and I will do my best to include them in the newsletter. skirbycwj@gmail.com or 276 806-9709.
