Pastor's Corner

Rev. Mark Hinchcliff

May 19, 2021

"Which of these three was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers? The expert of the law replied, "the one who had mercy on him." Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise." Luke 10:36-37

If you are like me, so often I see someone in need and I want to help but there comes that other voice of caution that takes over and I end up passing by without stopping. When was the last time you pulled up to a stoplight and saw a homeless person or a car broken down on the side of the road and avoided eye contact thinking somehow if you just keep looking forward you would be relieved of the guilt of not helping if you could? I'll admit I have stopped to help on many occasions but I've driven by a lot more.

The Scripture above from Luke is the conclusion to a famous story of the "Good Samaritan" where normally good people failed to help even when they were able. Whatever their reasons only one stopped to help a man so badly beaten he would not have been able to survive without help. Or as the Scripture said the one who showed mercy. In the Old Testament book of Leviticus, the writer tells the reader to, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Those words became the central theme in Jesus' ministry. To love them as yourself in biblical history this kind of love can be translated as "help". Help as a verb as to expend energy, to give assistance, to actively do something! From a Scriptural point of view, the primary measure of our compassion is measured in our actions.

The good news is that we all have the capacity to be an agent for compassion. Whether you have an abundance of money or not, whether you're outgoing or shy, whether your young or old, it doesn't matter. We all can be used to extend the compassion of God. The goal then is for we who are Christ-followers to always be looking for ways to extend that love to others by incorporating God's compassion into our daily lifestyles. Try not to take the attitude that my church or someone else will help when I can be that agent. Pray that God will give each of us the knowledge and compacity to find a need to help a neighbor today.

Blessed be your days,

Pastor Mark

Pentecost Sunday

Please join us Pentecost Sunday either in person or via Facebook live at 10 am.
sermon by Pastor March Hinchcliff

When Will We Truly Understand Each Other?

Based upon Acts 2:1-8, 11-21 and John 15:26-27, 16:4b-15

Please give generously to support the PC(USA) Pentecost Special Offering, which will help support our own children as well as youth ministries around the world. This year, Pentecost Sunday falls on May 23.

On the Day of Pentecost, we celebrate God's gift of the Holy Spirit. His Spirit draws us together as one people, helps us to comprehend what He is doing in the world, and empowers us to proclaim, in word and in deed, His plan of reconciling all people in the name of Christ (Ephesians 1:10).

The Pentecost Offering unites us in a church-wide effort to support young people and inspire them to share faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world. 40% of the offerings collected from our church stays with our church, and 60% is used by national programs and initiatives that support young adults, ministries with youth, and children at risk.

By supporting this offering, you are helping to shape a positive future for young lives, for our church and for our world. Please give generously to this offering.

MacArthur Bible Studies: Study of Isaiah

Begins: April 11 at 8:30 AM - June 13 by Zoom

The MacArthur Bible Studies provide intriguing examinations of the whole of Scripture and continues to be one of the bestselling study guide series on the market today. In this study, Dr. MacArthur examines the words of the prophet Isaiah, showing how God proved to be faithful to his people (and us) by promising to send Messiah who would save them from sin. These latest all-new studies join the ranks of the previously released study guides, now offering readers a comprehensive selection of Old Testament Bible studies by bestselling author and theologian John MacArthur.

Each lesson includes:

- Drawing Near: An opening question based on the key theme or topic of the lesson
- The Context: Background information on the passage of Scripture being studied
- Keys to the Text: Detailed commentary on the passage being studied
- Unleashing the Text: Application questions on the passage highlighted in the lesson
- Exploring the Meaning: Three key takeaways from the passage
- Reflecting on the Text: Reflection questions on the passage highlighted in the lesson
- Personal Response: A journaling section to help readers apply the principles

Each study includes an introduction that provides background information to each book of the Bible being studied and a closing "Reviewing Key Principles" lesson to help cement the main themes of the study.

To sign up or for more information, contact Denny Casey (d.a.casey@comcast.net).

Bible Study: Stewardship of Creation

Begins: April 21 at 7 PM by Zoom for six weeks

This is being organized by the FPC Earth Care team

Description from the publisher:

"Explore the biblical bases for our care of creation along with sessions on being environmentally friendly at home, at church, and in the world."

Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding is a series of biblically based mini-courses that provides adults with a foundational understanding of the Reformed faith. Each six-session study--written by well-known and respected scholars--features Scripture, prayer, in-depth commentary, and questions for reflection. Each study addresses its subject from a Reformed theological perspective. Lessons are enhanced through the Leader's Guide, which offers helpful suggestions and direction for group study. The main structure for these guides is the rubric Head, Heart, and Hands.

We have borrowed a few books from the presbytery office that will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Contact Sam Smith, sam@peakspresbytery.org, to borrow a copy or you may purchase a copy from the PCUSA bookstore.

Here's a link to the book (with a link if you'd like to order a copy):

Pentecost At Home Faith Formation

Pentecost is the day when we celebrate God's gift of the Holy Spirit, which unites us together as one and helps us to see God at work in our world. The Pentecost Offering also "unites us in a church-wide effort to support young people and inspire them to share their faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world."

Beginning the week of April 25, and each week leading up to Pentecost Sunday, families, of any size and all ages, are encouraged to utilize the at home faith formation resources linked below as a devotional. Each week you will read the guiding scripture passage, Psalm 71:17 as well as a story of how the Pentecost Offering impacts ministries for children, youth, and young adults. You're also encouraged to work on coloring the Pentecost Mandela and much like with the prayer doves last year, please send pictures of your completed creation to me!

Collect a weekly gift to the Pentecost Offering in your faith formation space and then bring or mail to the church your offering on or before Pentecost Sunday. Your gift not only supports ministries within the PC(USA), but also ministries for children and youth within our own congregation.

Blessings,
Sam
